Director's Notes

As we head into the 2021 Christmas Season it is a great pleasure to be part of this live theater production. As we all have had many challenges and changes occur in our personal and professional lives over the last year and half or so due to COVID, this show encompasses all the emotions that people deal with when traditions and change occur whether we are ready or not.

I hope that you leave the theater feeling optimistic about your own changes and challenges as you watch the people of Harmony Baptist Church start to unravel and then come together as a community that supports each other.

Thank you to the PCT Board for placing trust in me to bring this show to fruition, the cast of talented people that have worked hard on this production and all the crew that make the vision come to life. Please continue to support your local theater community in the coming year.

Happy Holidays!

Vickie Anderson

About the Cast...

Vickie Anderson (Candy/Director) Vickie has been active in community theater for over 30 years. Since moving to Hampton in 2005, she has been active on stage and backstage with PCT, Poquoson Island Players, Williamsburg Players, IRON Street Productions, Yorktown Shakespeare Company, and TNCC Theatre Arts. Vickie is the Business Manager for Jamestown 4-H Educational Center. The rest of her time is spent with husband Andy and their spoiled Labrador, Sammy, crafting and repurposing items.

Kris Karns (Pastor Bobby) is from Orem, Utah. He holds a Bachelor's of Fine Arts in Musical Theater from Colorado Mesa University. Recent credits include MacBeth in MacBeth, Editor Webb in Our Town, and most recently PCT's A Broadway Celebration.

Lydia Mugler (Kitty) is a veteran with local community theatre groups performing in Newport News, Poquoson, Williamsburg, and Sandler Center in Virginia Beach. Lydia is a proud grandmother, who, in real life, is a paralegal with the law firm of Kaufman & Canoles. Hobbies include step aerobics at the Hampton Y, dancing with Colonial Shag Club, and keeping in touch with Typhoon classmates.

Kim Voska (Carol) – is excited to return to the PCT stage (The Trial of Ebenezer Scrooge, Sarah/Belle) with this remarkably talented group! As a proud mom of three amazing daughters and grandma to three incredible grandchildren, she is enjoying retired life with her loving and supportive husband, Ed. Special thanks to my family and friends (including the Bunco Babes and my TBG Weaving Buddies) for coming out to watch me “livin’ the dream!”

Sandra Federico (Marsha) is excited to be back on stage after a several year hiatus for grad school, a career change, and multiple interstate moves! Previous theatrical experience includes acting, directing, and choreographing for community theatres and school productions in Huntsville, AL and Ann Arbor, MI. Favorite roles: Rosie (Cabaret), and Ginger (Best Little Whorehouse in Texas). Favorite choreography: Urinetown and Thoroughly Modern Millie. Favorite shows directed: Aesop's Fables and Miss Nelson is Missing.

Kristina Silverman (Tina Matthews) This is Kristina's first performance with PCT. Her stage credits include performances with "Expressions" theater troupe from Peninsula Community Chapel as B'Linda in Hillbilly Christmas and principle roles in Long Story Short and Messy Christmas. Other credits include Helen in Bye Bye Birdie, as well as musical director for PCC Children's Musicals The Secret of Snowflake County, Dude, You Hear What I Hear?, An Out of the Box Christmas and Aloha Christmas. She has performed with various choirs on both east and west coasts, on tour in Prague with Czech opera singer Michael Šust, and most recently with the Virginia Choral Society. Kristina enjoys spending time with her husband and three daughters.

Kameron Peters (Joe Jr.) Kameron is a 27 year old actor from Hampton, Virginia. He has acted in shows all over the peninsula and took some time off to work in the film industry. Now he's back and more excited than ever. He's great, wonderful, and an awesome person to be around. His stage presence is everything and makes everyone around him better. He is one of a kind. One of his favorite quotes to say is "Be Easy, Be Easy, Be"

Brenna Lawrence (Mary) Brenna Lawrence is excited to be making her Peninsula Community Theater debut! During the run of the show (Dec 2021), she will be graduating from Christopher Newport University with a B.S.B.A in Finance and minors in Leadership Studies and Dance. Favorite previous roles: James and the Giant Peach Jr. (Spiker); Anne of Green Gables (Diana); Babes in Toyland (Bo Peep); and Beauty and The Beast (Featured Dancer). She wants to extend a huge thank you to her parents for always supporting and encouraging her! And a special shout out to Broadway Weekends for giving her the platform to rekindle her passion for performing. Matthew 5:14-16.

Chloe Ross (Roberta) is 12 years old and is a new actress! Chloe was a part of the ensemble a production of Frozen in 2019, however this is her first speaking role. Chloe enjoys acting, singing, dancing and spending time with her family. Chloe has dreams of attending college in New York City and hopes to one day make it to the big screen!

Jason R. Jenifer, II (Dougie) Jason is a gifted & creative 6th grader with a passion for acting.
